

3rd Annual Colloquium of the DFG Research Group 'Language Variation'

Theme: Members' Concepts and Metalinguistic Intuitions

Nov. 30 -- Dec. 1, 2001

University of Mannheim, Schloß (Castle), East Wing, Room O 138

Thursday, Nov. 29		Arrival of most of the external participants
	from 8 p.m.	Get together for dinner at Hotel Wartburg
Friday, Nov. 30	9:30	Welcome and organization (W. Kallmeyer, Speaker of the Group)
	9:45 – 10:15	Introduction to the colloquium theme: Members' Concepts and Metalinguistic Intuitions (Werner Kallmeyer)
	10:15 – 12:30	Presentations by the project groups: Part I
	12:30 – 14:00	Lunch break
	14:00 – 16:15	Presentations by the project groups: Part II
	16:15 – 16:45	Coffee break
	16:45 – 17:35	Turkish-Dutch teenagers' intuitions concerning language dominance, language choice and code- switching (Nadja Eversteijn, Tilburg)
	17:45 – 18:30	Language and language use among adolescents in multilingual urban settings (Kari Fraurud, Stockholm)
	19:30	Dinner at Henninger Gutsschänke, T6, 28-19 Mannheim
Saturday, 1 Dec.	9:30-10:15	Formulierungsmöglichkeiten von Sprachattitüden 'Options for formulating language attitudes' (Rita Franceschini, Saarbrücken)
	10:15-10:40	Coffee break
	10:40-11:30	Why gestures are relevant to issues of multilingual language use. Communicative and cognitive perspectives (Marianne Gulberg, MPI Nijmegen)
	11:30-12:15	On language choice, literacy and transfer in indigenous bilingual contexts in Mexico (Rainer Hamel, UAM, Mexico / Mannheim)
	12:30-13:00	Closing discussion